Be the Voice of Catholic

The Church Commission aims to create an educated and dynamic community of God's people through programs of study and action.

The Family Commission aims to assist members in achieving truly Christian family living, to preserve Christian principles in areas pertaining to the welfare of all families.

The Community Commission aims to increase awareness of human rights, basic needs and justice within communities.

The International Commission aims to meet the needs of people universally, and strives to create a conviction of responsibilities for the international society.

The Organization Commission serves to strengthen and assist the entire organization in communicating their concerns and furthering the development of leadership among women.

The Legislation Commission works to educate members on legislative issues and encourages advocacy on local, state, and national levels.

ACCW

Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women

- Established May 11, 1933 by Archbishop John G. Murray
- Is a volunteer organization inviting members to respond to Christ's call to serve others
- Works through affiliated parish CCW organizations

ACCW provides:

- Programs of spiritual enrichment
- Support to the Deanery Boards and their affiliated parish women's organizations
- Leadership training
- Speakers

ACCW is the connecting link in the NCCW network, uniting NCCW and the Province of St. Paul & Minneapolis with the Deanery Councils and Parish CCW organizations.

ACCW Mission Statement:

As a member of NCCW, ACCW acts through its affiliated organization to support, empower and educate women in spirituality, leadership and service. Our programs respond with gospel values to the needs of the church and society in the modern world.
