

Rebecca Koenig Roloff

The Joy of Mission-Based Leadership One Woman's Journey

Becky Roloff is the 11th president of St. Catherine University. A North Dakota native, Roloff is a 1976 graduate of St. Kate's, chaired the University's Board (1991-1995) and has been an active alumna. She also earned an MBA with distinction from Harvard Business School. She has a distinguished career in the private and non profit sectors. She has demonstrated extraordinary leadership, commitment to inclusion and ability to achieve financial stability through fundraising, while at the same time serving the community. Active in the community, Becky currently serves as a trustee for the Charles and Ellora Ellis Educational foundation and is a member of Women Corporate Directors. She also chaired the boards of the Blake School and the Children's Theatre Company. She enjoys reading, needlepoint, playing the piano, cooking and travel. She published her first children's book in 1996 and completed her 10th triathlon in 2018.

Anne Attea

Discipleship: Embracing Our Immigrant Brothers and Sisters

Anne (Anita) Attea just completed her tenth year as a Pastoral Associate at Church of the Ascension, a culturally diverse community on the north side of Minneapolis. She works primarily with the Latino community at the parish, and prior to her employment there, served for 10 years as Director for Latino Ministry for the Archdiocese of St. Paul & Minneapolis. She is the mother of 12 year old Isabela, and has a great passion for learning with and from the people with whom she lives and ministers.

Amanda Virnig

And the truth will set you free

Amanda grew up on a dairy farm in a small town in Central MN. Married 15 years, she joyfully lives out her vocation as wife and mother to two daughters. She works as a clinical Laboratory Scientist at Abbot Northwestern Hospital where she leads the transfusion services department. In her spare time, she enjoys running, hiking, counted cross stitch and family. Passionate about her faith and led by the Spirit, she wants to spread the joy and truth of the Lord's tender mercy through her authentic witness and testimony. She is a longstanding member of the Good Shepherd Catholic Church in Golden Valley.

Carrie Berran

Finding Life's Purpose

Carrie Berran's purpose in life is to help people become the best version of themselves - including herself! Carrie wears many hats: just a few are wife, mom, athlete, coach, and human resources executive. One of Carrie's passions is athletics - she gravitated toward sports as a child, played basketball in college and has coached youth sports teams for over 24 years. She is fascinated by life lessons learned through athletics and continually reinforces those lessons to her sports teams. Carrie has been recognized both in the state and nationally for her positive impact on young athletes including the inaugural Junior NBA Coach of the Year Award and Positive Coaches Alliance Impact Award. Carrie is especially driven to support female coaches and athletes, having learned invaluable lessons from her female coach role models. She is dedicated to helping her home team, work team, and sports teams gain confidence and act with purpose to positively impact all arenas of their lives.
